

Moody in Greece – Fall 2017

July 30th – October 11th

The Moody in Greece program offers two different course tracks: TRACK 1 for Sophomores and TRACK 2 for Juniors. Students will experience Grecian culture through involvement with the local church and engagement with the local culture. Highlights of the program include tours to Biblical sights in Turkey, Rome, and Greece.

Cost: $8175 (PELL grants may be applied to this program). Cost includes roundtrip airfare from Chicago, accommodations, half-board (breakfasts and lunches provided, dinners on your own), a Biblical Sights Turkey, Rome, and Greece Tour. Students will also receive one voucher for an online course.

Program Schedule/Courses Offered:

Fly out: July 30th

Tour: July 31st – August 6th

Session 1: August 8th – 18th

- TRACK 1 – GSU-2250 Introduction to Philosophy (3 credit hours)

OR

- TRACK 2 – TH 3330 Systematic Theology 1 (4 credit hours)

Prerequisites: GSU-2250 Introduction to Philosophy, GSU-2222 Christianity and Western Culture II and TH-1110 The Church and its Doctrines

Session 2: August 22nd – September 1st

- TRACK 1 – BI-2280 Hermeneutics (3 credit hours)

Prerequisite: MS-1102 Studying and Teaching the Bible

OR

- TRACK 2 – BI-4411 Romans (3 credit hours)

Prerequisite: TH 3330 Systematic Theology 1

Session 3: September 4th – 14th

- TRACK 1 – GSU-2221 Christianity and Western Culture I (3 credit hours)

Prerequisites: BI 1112 New Testament Survey and TH-1110 The Church and its Doctrines

OR

- TRACK 2 – Advanced Communication Elective (3 credit hours)

Prerequisite: GSU-1120 Speech Communication

Rome Tour: September 15th – 19th

Greece Tour: September 19th – 24th

Session 4: September 25th – Oct 5th

- TRACK 1 – GSU-2222 Christianity and Western Culture II (3 credit hours)

Prerequisites: GSU-2221 Christianity and Western Culture I

OR

- TRACK 2 – TH-4481 Eastern Orthodoxy (3 credit hours)

Theology Elective

500th Anniversary of the Reformation Tour in Germany: October 6th – 10th

Fly Home from Berlin: October 11th