MOODY DISTANCE LEARNING

Course Number, Name, and Credit Hours

IS-6600 Apologetics and World Religions, 3 credit hours

Course Description

The course is an introduction to the biblical, theological, and philosophical foundations of Christian Apologetics. It includes an examination of various apologetic methodologies. Attention is given to defending the Christian worldview in response to the challenges of the 21st century. This course also surveys the history, worldview, and theology of major world religions. It also includes a critical evaluation of these religions from a biblical perspective in order to develop a Christian response to them and site visits, where possible, to various houses of worship.

Course Objectives

After completing this course, the student will be able to...

1. Articulate the biblical, theological, key philosophical foundations, and methodologies in Christian Apologetics (Knowledge and Understanding).
2. Formulate answers to some of the major questions or assaults on the Christian faith from a secularistic, pluralistic, and increasingly anti-Christian world (Reflection and Critique; Judgment and Design).
3. Delineate points of contact or similarity between these non-Christian religions and Christianity so that they serve as conversation starters (Knowledge and Understanding; Judgment and Design).
4. Identify major points of tension or difference between these religions and Christianity so as to lovingly refute their claims and also as God provides the opportunity to share the Gospel (Judgment and Design; Engagement and Motivation)
5. Experience, reflect, and appropriately respond to the diversity, richness, and yet lostness of peoples of other major religions through site visits and their places of worship (Performance and Action; Commitment and Identity.)
